生态教育正在成为全球关注的兴趣点, 而学校——昔日的象牙塔也被强烈要求关注全球和当地的生态问题。然而, 现实情况是大部分教师关于此方面的知识很有限, 也没有经过相应的培训, 因此无法让学生深切了解周围的自然世界。不过, 幸运的是, 老师们都有关于激发学生学习中想象力的教学方法培训。本书正是说明了如何将想象力与理解生态问题紧密联系起来, 并且给老师提供了生态教育和想象力教育的实践指导方法——确实有必要向孩子们进行生态教育了。而想象力确实是教、学中的核心内容, 这也是有目共睹的。

【评论】

«'Education in the Creative Economy' is a fabulous collection of essays by some of the most penetrating and insightful scholars now mapping the field of creative knowledge economy studies. The book's principal merit resides in the thoughtfulness of each of the contributions to this timely edited volume, and the probing connections and challenging questions that these scholars pose to the status quo organization of knowledge in schooling and the university today. This volume insistently urges educators to reconsider the ways we think about education and pedagogy and the ways we might profit from the cutting-edge developments in the domain of the creative industries. This book will be an indispensable text for general readers, students and scholars interested in the study of the creative knowledge economy for years to come.» (Cameron McCarthy, Professor of Educational Policy Studies, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign)

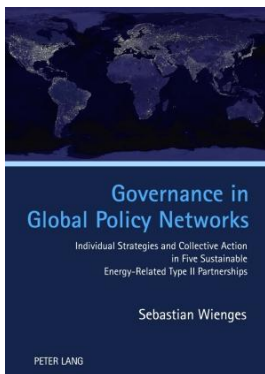

«This book brings together multiple perspectives on and creates a compelling argument for the role of creativity in economic growth and development. It examines how an eclectic mix of technology, talent and educational policy are vital for innovation and economic growth, and argues the need for new learning paradigms and for better links across academic disciplines and between universities and business. Increased and accelerating globalization in all areas of the economy has never made creativity more important to innovation than now, so it is good to see a book that tackles the importance of creativity from a range of perspectives and from across the world. The book starts by defining creativity in the context of economic growth and globalization, and the chapters that follow under the headings of educational policy, technology and economy, and culture and curriculum indicate the challenges that need to be addressed in order for growth to occur and for developing countries to rise up. As curricula in schools continue to be locked down and a narrow range of skills are defined and measured with levels of accountability that drive out creativity, this book is a warning to policymakers to stop and review their directions, and to consider the implications of a testing regime that fails to encompass the need for demonstrations of creativity in its design.» (Michelle Selinger, Director, Education Practice, Internet Business Solutions Group, Cisco Systems)

«At a time when educational improvement is increasingly seen as a prerequisite for economic prosperity, this volume centers on vital, underemphasized objectives for twenty-first century learning, teaching, and policy.» (Christopher Dede, Timothy E. Wirth Professor in Learning Technologies, Harvard University)

《瓦雷里笔记 4》Cahiers / Notebooks 4: Translated and edited by Brian Stimpson, Paul Gifford, Robert Pickering and Norma Rinsler

作者：Valéry Paul, Peter Lang 国际学术出版集团

978-3-631-36765-0, 精装，692 页，83.20 欧元，2010 年

《瓦雷里笔记》是保罗·瓦雷里独特的写作形式。瓦雷里被认为是 20 世纪最具创造力的先锋思想家之一，他的作品触及到人类的各个领域，包括艺术、科学、哲学、政治史、语言学、心理学以及当时的社会问题。有些问题今天我们同样也会遇到，如分析与创造力之间的界限，理论与实践之间的界限等。这不同于一般的日记，瓦雷里回避了传统的写作风格，文字追求极致优美，耽于哲理，间或穿插具有讽刺意味的格言。瓦雷里 50 多年的思想旅程充满人文关怀和智慧，对于今天的读者来说依然值得学习。

《政治改革：复杂社会时代的执政管理》 The Transformation of Politics: Governing in the Age of Complex Societies

作者：Daniel Innerarity, Peter Lang 国际学术出版集团

ISBN: 978-90-5201-646-7, 平装, 254 页, 26.50 欧元, 2010 年

当今，政治是社会自组织“音乐会”仅有的声音。政治的职能是阐明我们社会制度的差异：鼓励社会制度自我约束的同时约束自己。

这样的概念显然威胁到一个民族国家的首要地位。但也不至于要消失，因为它被认为是统治阶层进行统治的重要手段。

本书哲学学术性强，同时文字清晰优雅，致力于为读者提供政治在话语无力时期的意义。

【评论】

“[A] crucial contribution to Latin American Studies on a subject of ever increasing urgency. From a political economy perspective this sophisticated yet accessible volume covers the waterfront of major domestic and international relations issues raised by China's growing influence in the region. The focus on the longer-term development implications of the relationship for Latin America raise a critical question that cuts to the core of Latin America's perennial dilemma. How will the region wean itself off raw materials exports as the principal engine of economic growth? The relationship with China, in any case, does not seem to be the path.”

基于关于黑手党、牧师、母亲和移民这些具有意大利鲜明特色的案例研究, 作者从一个全新的视角关注了意大利的宗教人类学, 以及各种地理景观、机构、人类活动和物质体验的奇妙之处。在维持快速发展变化的、以男性为主导的世界的可持续性上, 女性宗教人士在生产创造方面功不可没。在探讨了精神体验、圣人崇拜、官方认可的邪教教会, 特别是巫术后, 本书揭示了宗教巨大的创造力, 有时也是极具破坏性的, 它很神奇, 它在人类的社会价值体现、在地中海人务实的现实主义的日常生活的方方面面都有体现。

《另类战争：联合国对伊拉克的制裁》 A DIFFERENT KIND OF WAR: The UN Sanctions Regime in Iraq

作者：H. C. von Sponeck, Berghahn Books

ISBN: 978-1-84545-222-3, 精装, 336 页, 22.95 英镑, 2006 年, 英语

当国际组织屡次用制裁对一些国家进行威胁时，本书无疑是警告。对于那些准备继续考虑将制裁当作一种有影响力的措施的政治家及其外交政策顾问们来说，应该要求他们强制性阅读本书。作者不仅为我们提供了伊拉克政治发展的关键、清晰的调查，也展示了伊拉克人民令人心碎的生活现状，也正是他们承担了制裁的后果，而萨达姆政府的官员们依然住在豪华的别墅，积聚巨大的财富。

H.-C. von Sponeck, 前联合国伊拉克人道主义协调员，探讨了联合国制裁对伊拉克产生的后果。作者研究的依据是联合国为公开的文件，以及他与联合国决策者（如时任秘书长的安南）、伊拉克官员和政界人士（包括萨达姆）、普通伊拉克人民的讨论。作者的发现提出这样的疑问：谁从其中真正获益，联合国安理会及各成员国在其中发挥了什么作用，是否有可更替的联合国对伊拉克政策。

【评论】

"In this consistently penetrating, often heartbreaking, and critically important study, von Sponeck reminds us of the horrendous humanitarian situation that existed in Iraq for over a decade before Operation Iraqi Freedom was launched by the George W. Bush administration...The sanctions resulted in widespread malnutrition, destroyed the health and education sectors, and ironically appear to have only perpetuated the rule of a dictatorial government, which was able to blame outside forces for the Iraqi people's immiseration...von Sponeck paints a harrowing portrait of a multilateral organization essentially hijacked, at times with only minimal resistance, by two powerful Western states willing to sacrifice hundreds of thousands of Iraqi lives to achieve their foreign policy objectives." —Journal of Genocide Research

"This book is my personal history. I grew up during the embargo years - no health care, poor education, not enough food. God and my parents helped me to survive." —Wissam Khalifa (18), Al-Fallujah/Iraq

【作者介绍】

H. C. von Sponeck worked for the United Nations for more than thirty years and in 1998 was appointed UN Assistant Secretary General. During his service he worked for the UN Development program in Ghana, Turkey, Botswana, Pakistan and India. 【评论】

“These lively essays make for the rare collection that is greater than the sum of its parts. Bookended by a substantive Foreword and Afterword, they upend the standard ‘diagnosis of nostalgia’ found across the former Soviet bloc, refuting the popular conception that Eastern Europeans are somehow haunted by the past, and illustrating the repertoire of contemporary post-socialist cultural politics at its most sophisticated.” ——Bruce Grant, New York University

Maria Todorova is Professor of History at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. Her publications include Bones of Contention: The Living Archive of Vasil Levski and the Making of Bulgaria’s National Hero (2006), Balkan Identities: Nation and Memory (2004), Imagining the Balkans (1997), Balkan Family Structure and the European Pattern: Demographic Developments in Ottoman Bulgaria (1993).

《分娩、助产与时间概念》 CHILDBIRTH, MIDWIFERY AND CONCEPTS OF TIME

作者: Christine McCourt (ed.), Berghahn Books

ISBN: 978-1-84545-586-6, 精装, 272 页, 55.00 英镑, 2009 年, 英语

系列: Fertility, Reproduction and Sexuality · Volume 17

各种文化都认为分娩是非常神圣的，以至于分娩从来都没有被认为是单纯的生理过程或心理过程。本书汇集了诸多人类学家和助产士的著作，他们认为人类学方法对他们的工作非常有帮助。通过对不同文化情境中的案例研究，作者们探讨了在监控管理分娩过程中对时间概念化、标示和测量的核心方法：产妇、助产士和其他参与者如何受权力和控制力影响，同时却积极尝试建立新的思考和行为方式。书中的故事非常具有吸引力，并引导读者以一种全新的方式思考时间和人类繁衍。

【评论】

"In this fascinating, scholarly, and readable book the authors take us into our familiar worlds and make them strange, with the result that we can see clearly, with fresh, critical, and creative eyes, what goes on in our everyday world. Each of the chapters helps us see how differently time can be experienced and framed." —
—Anthropology in Action

"Childbirth is an erudite and lively collection of writings by some of the most creative and innovative authors around on the theme of time and childbirth. Drawing on anthropological and sociological perspectives, the authors have created a unique praxis which embodies theory and ethnographic empirical work. Chris McCourt has created a truly original book which will be on the 'must read' list for scholars, practitioners and all those with an interest in the meaning of birth in society today." —Jane Sandall, Professor of Social Sciences & Women's Health, King's College

"This is a fascinating and thought-provoking book which provides rich insights into the meaning of time in relation to childbirth. Although time is central to the way that childbirth is viewed and 'managed', its significance has been largely ignored. This book fills this gap, drawing on a wealth of cross cultural studies undertaken by midwives and anthropologists, to explore how differing constructions of time affect the experiences of women and childbirth attendants. It provides an original and critical analysis, which will be of interest to childbirth practitioners and researchers as well as to the wider social science research community."
——Billie Hunter, Professor of Midwifery, Swansea University

"In this fascinating, scholarly and very readable book the authors, as they have done in their work, take us into our familiar worlds and make them strange, so that we can see more clearly, with fresh critical and more creative eyes, what goes on in our everyday world. Every chapter helps us see how differently time can be experienced and framed."——Lesley Page, Visiting Professor in Midwifery Nightingale School of Nursing and Midwifery King's College London

【作者介绍】

Christine McCourt studied for her degree and doctorate in social anthropology at the London School of Economics. Her doctoral work, an ethnographic study of the closure of a long-stay psychiatric hospital, was explicitly intended to be ‘applied anthropology’. From 2006 to 2010 she was Professor of Anthropology and Health, at Thames Valley University and she is now Professor of Maternal and Child Health at City University London. Her research and teaching is mainly focused on culture and organisation of biomedicine, maternal and infant care, and social and cultural issues affecting women’s health.

关于欧洲野生食用植物和草药的研究是个古老的学科，现在富有激情的新一代研究者们将民族植物学研究应用其中。现代植物学和医学本身就是建立在中世纪欧洲人对食用植物和草药的研究之上。尽管里程碑式的变化是发生在大发现和商业资本主义时期，特别是一些国外移民社区继续用传统的药方，这对新一代的研究者起到不小的影响。进入 21 世纪后，在欧盟一体化和全球化的大背景下，欧洲民间植物学也积极对文化、经济和政治的变化做出反应。作者们在本书介绍的研究正在欧洲大部分地区广泛进行，他们告诉我们欧洲人类-植物关系正在生物文化最活跃的地区发生革命性的变化，并探讨了保护生物文化多样性和基于植物的遗产的继承的新方法。

《世界卫生组织 2009 年农药毒性分级推荐标准》 WHO Recommended
Classification of Pesticides by Hazard and Guidelines to Classification 2009
(The)

作者：世界卫生组织，世界卫生组织出版社

ISBN: 9789241547963, 平装, 2010 年, 78 页, 英语, 21.00 瑞士法郎

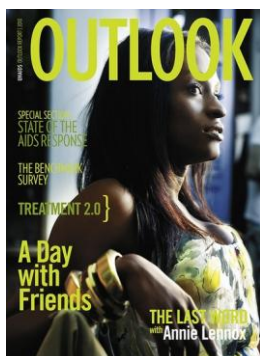

《世界卫生组织农药毒性分级推荐标准》首次出版于 1975 年，为世界卫生组织年鉴之附录，出版后广为各国采用，并于 1978 年第一次出版该建议的指引，其后每隔数年则酌情修改再发行。鉴于化学品的广泛开发与使用，各个国家有其作法以确保使用、运输和处置的安全性，涉及之范围相当广泛，因此体认到要采用国际调和的做法进行分类和标示，可为此类方案提供基础，尤其是危害化学品（hazardous chemicals）使用及其安全管理。联合国「危险物品运输专家委员会与化学品全球分类与标示调和制度专家委员会（UNCETDG/GHS）」于 2002 年 12 月公布了「化学品全球分类与标示调和制度（The Globally Harmonized System of Classification and Labelling of Chemicals, GHS）」，是为世界各国在推展 GHS 上的重要参考指引。

书中提及之危害为影响健康的急性风险，而基于生物性资料的分类并非一成不变，因意见相左而影响生物性资料的评估是无可避免的，而毒性资料的歧异性与不一致也可能肇因于实验动物的易感性、或评估时采用的实验技术与材料之不同而异；分类条件所提供的资讯乃为补充原分类不足的部分，而非取代专有知识或可靠的临床判断，因此，需视实际情况而重新评估与审定。分类原则乃基于毒理学之标准程序而决定，主要以大鼠试验之急性口服毒性与急性皮肤毒性为判定标准。
